Star Tribune
CASPER INSIDE

INSIDE
Calendar B2
Town Crier B2-3
Weddings B4-5
Inklink B7

Casper Inside editor Sally Ann Shurmur can be reached at (307) 266-0532, 1-800-559-0583 or sallyann.shurmur@casperstartribune.net

THE WEEK AHEAD

FROM STAFF REPORTS

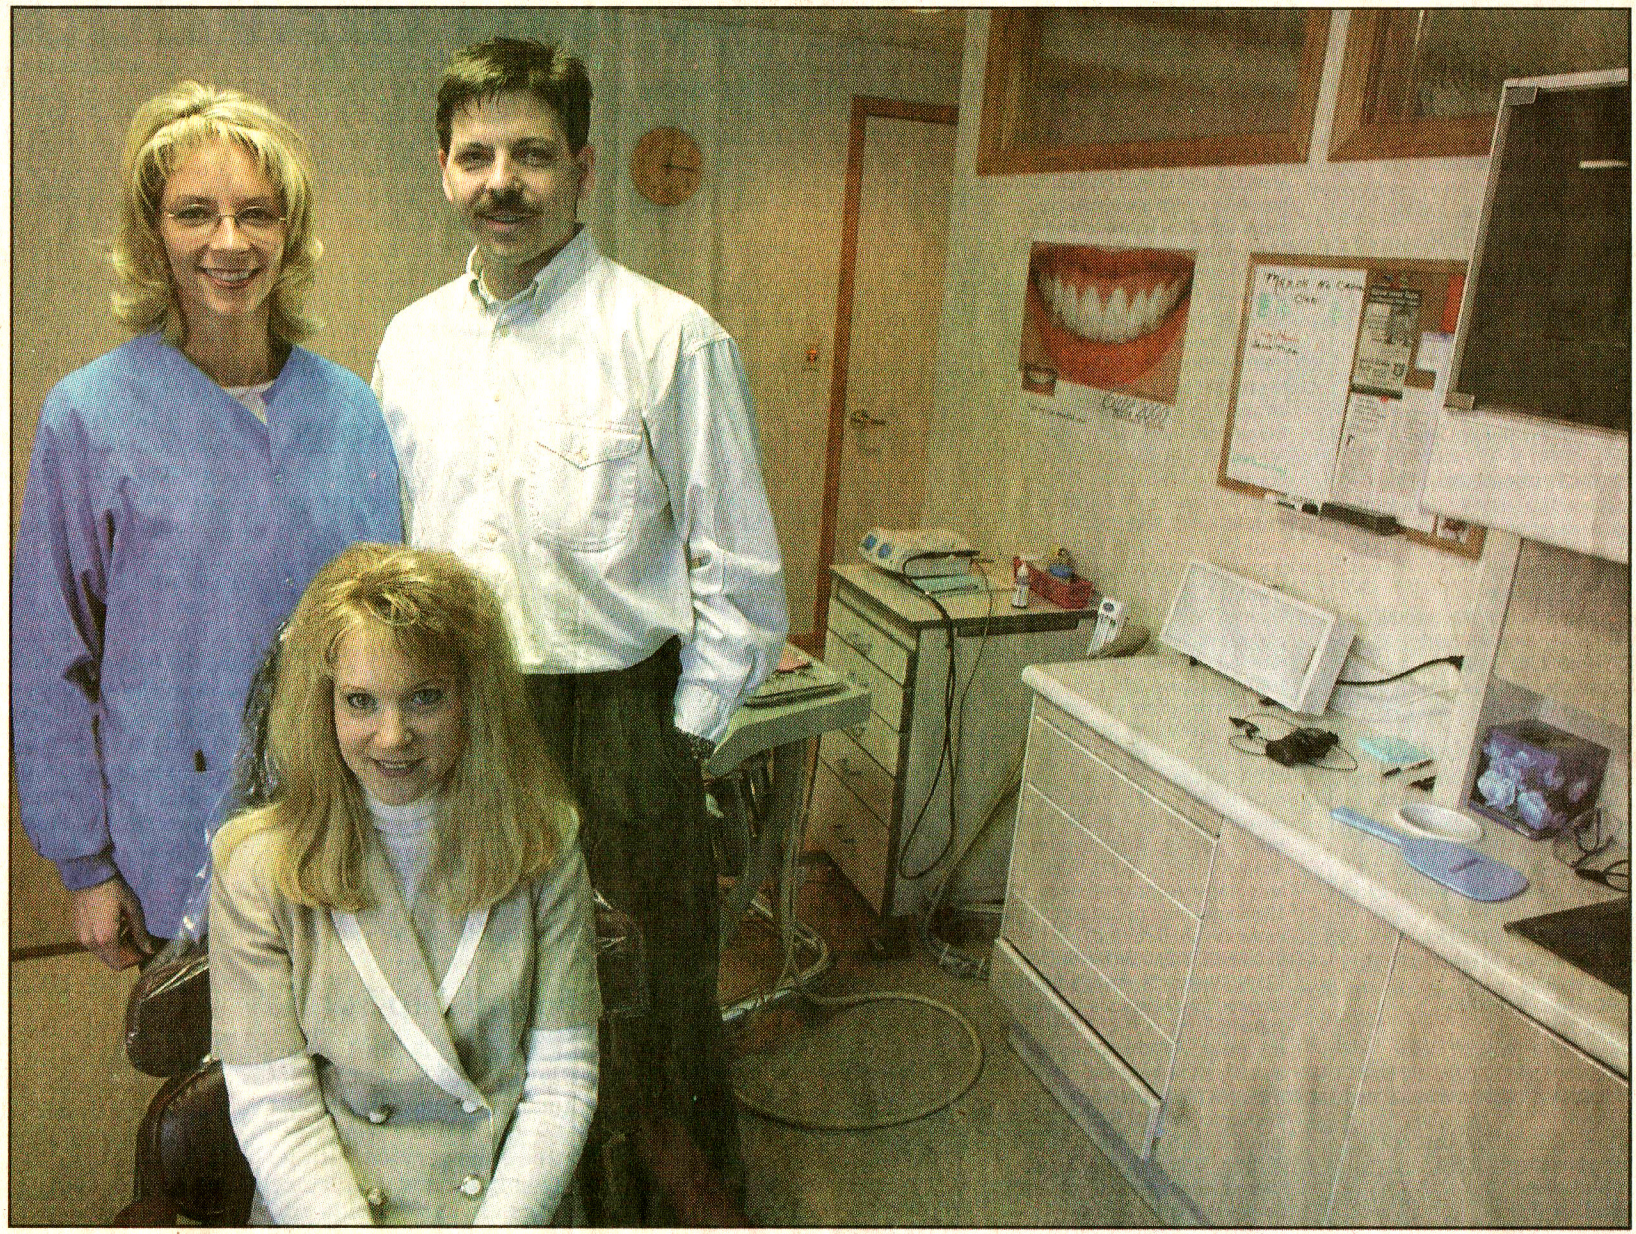
TODAY

VFW Post 9439 and Auxiliaries, 00 Bryan Stock Trail, will host a nefit breakfast from 8-11 a.m. All oceeds will benefit the Sheridan d Cheyenne veterans hospitals. ey are in need of recreational d comfort items. The men in- ides ham, bacon, biscuits with usage gravy, eggs, hash browns, ncakes, fruit and beverages. st is $6 for adults and $3 for ildren under 10. For more infor- tion, call 235-4867.

TODAY

The Casper Antique & Collec- r's Club is sponsoring the ring Super Flea at the Central yoming Fairgrounds Industrial ilding from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Ad- ssion will be $1.25; there will no charge for children under Twenty-five percent of the mission will be donated to the untry Spiders 4-H Club, who re selected to work the door. Dealers will be from Casper d outlying areas of Wyoming, lorado, Montana, South Dako- and Nebraska. They will have ny outstanding articles in- ding coins, glassware, jewelry, niture and more. Come join e fun and "shop 'til you drop." Proceeds from the two super a markets and two antique ows go to assist the museums tewide, local nonprofit organi- tions and the local libraries ch year.

Guests are always welcome at neral meetings on the third ursday of each month at the



DAN CEPEDA/Star-Tribune

From left, Melissa Youmans, DDS; Pam Kerr, office manager at Jason's Friends Foundation and Stuart Youmans, DDS, are all smiles about the Smiles for Life teeth whitening fund-raiser for local children's organizations.