Jason's Friends Foundation would like to invite your family to apply to our weekend Family Camp, Camp Courage Wyoming, located near Dubois, Wyoming. This camp is open to Wyoming children who have been diagnosed with cancer, along with their parents and siblings. We ask that only two adults in your immediate family sign up to go as space is limited.

Best of all, because of generous funding from donations and grants, Camp Courage Wyoming is available to all pediatric oncology families FREE OF CHARGE!

Camp Courage Wyoming offers a wide variety of activities including horseback riding, ATV riding, disc golf, crafts, hiking, and much, much more! Camp Courage Wyoming is a process, not an event. It begins Friday at noon and ends Sunday at noon. It is important that our families be there the entire time.

Because this is a family camp, please note that parents/guardians will be responsible for ALL medical and personal needs of their children. Parents are responsible for any medical care.

Space is limited, so apply as soon as possible. The deadline for receipt of applications is June 1st, 2018. If your family is chosen you will receive a call as well as a full application to complete. Each chosen family will be paired up with a camp volunteer who will be in contact with you prior to the camp.
