Jason's friends

RICHARD ALAN HANNON/Star-Tribune

Brooke Eades, 6-year-old sister of the late Jason Eades who died from a brain stem tumor in 1995, sings a solo Monday in memory of her brother as part of the dedication of the Jason's Friends Plaza at the corner of Ninth and Center streets. The ceremony included dedication of a Chris Navarro sculpture, "Best Friends." Jason's Friends is a foundation set up in Jason's memory to help other families with children suffering from terminal illnesses.
